MISS LILLIAN WELLS

We, the Class of 1957, take great pride in dedicating our Archive to Miss Lillian Wells.

She has been our class advisor for two years in high school and has proved to be a loyal friend and counselor. Miss Wells entered into class activities with vigor, and could be counted upon to be on hand if she were needed. She has served as a club advisor besides efficiently teaching business subjects.

Because of her infinite interest in all of us, Miss Wells will long be remembered by those of us who have had the privilege of knowing her.

Our thanks go to the cafeteria staff for the wholesome food they provide every day without fail for the hungry students.

Valedictory

The eyes of the world are upon us. On our generation rests the burden of keeping our great nation one which can and will overcome all obstacles. In today's chaotic world, we are faced with tremendous problems. It may become necessary that we enter into a war to protect our democracy from communistic ideas. But we will emerge victorious through the manifold efforts of our generation on the battlefields and at the peace conferences.

Our parents and teachers have taught us to respect and take pride in our democracy. You may be assured that this training will prove worthwhile.

We, your sons and daughters in the Class of 1957, are ready to embark upon our careers. In our midst are future scientists, chemists, teachers, and politicians. We possess great potential which will not be wasted.

"Nothing is impossible to a willing heart." We shall succeed.

SALLY CLEVELAND

In today's schools educators have already put into operation a division of students according to their abilities. Technically called homogeneous grouping, the idea began back in the 1930's, and in the intervening years, high school students and elementary pupils have been tactfully and carefully grouped. All of us are familiar with the grade school reading classes—one for fast readers, and one for slow readers. Here, grouping is aiding the slower reader by making possible for the teacher to spend more time in helping them learn to read better and yet at the same time is permitting the better readers to progress. Many of us are unaware that grouping is practiced in the junior high and high school levels, where there are regents and non-regents classes in English, social studies, mathematics, and science.

And you, the parents of today's students, may be violently opposed to the theory. Discriminatory, undemocratic, social or financial position are the factors used to determine the various groups you protest. Yet, achievement-ability, only, is the basis for these divisions. Is it undemocratic to separate pupils with great potential and permit them to use their abilities to the highest degree or allow students of average ability to be indifferent toward their work only because they feel that they are inferior? Despite the belief that intelligence "rubs off" on the average students, it has been proven that the student of exceptional ability is also held back by doing work which is too easy. In the various groups, children of high ability compete with children of high ability, while the average compete against the average: thus, in the medium group, the slightly better student will be able to become a high-ranking student in his own ability group. And, in schools where more extensive grouping has been practiced, there have been no reports of snobbery among the students in the higher division.

Contemplate this matter, parents and students. Within the next few years homogeneous grouping may be as familiar a word to the student as recess or vacation.

Four Years on Earth!!!

In the fall of 1953 we, the Class of 1957, entered Norwich High School as bewildered freshmen. Under the guidance of Mr. Gibson, our advisor, we elected Wayne Adams, President; Sally Cleveland, Vice President; Ruth Fuller, Secretary; and Bruce Snover, Treasurer. A committee was chosen to select our class rings which we purchased in our junior year. At Christmas time, we had parties in our individual homerooms. Although we lost our first class basketball game, it was very exciting and the Sophomores only beat us by a few points.

Starting off our sophomore year under the guidance of Mrs. Christman, we elected the same slate of officers except Ann Jones stepped in as secretary. Our Sophomore Magazine Sale proved to be very successful with Carol Rivenburgh being high salesman.

The next fall, we entered Junior study hall with Miss Wells as our advisor. The officers were the same as those in our sophomore year except Diane Stewart took over as Vice President. Fran Carvaglio served as chairman for our Magazine Sale which was the most successful one on record. Sharon Anderson was high salesman. A couple of months before June, we started work on the annual Junior Prom under the co-chairmanship of Carol Byrne and Barb Ryan. The blue and silver decorations furnished the setting for our theme, "Stairway To the Stars."

Our senior year was filled with many exciting and happy memories. Again, Miss Wells served as our class advisor. We elected Diane Stewart, President; Sally Cleveland, Vice President; and the secretary and treasurer were the same. Our very successful Senior Frolic was entitled "Club '57." Many members of the class gave their time and talent to present a humorous and memorable floor show. John Spadaro, editor-in-chief of the Archive, and his staff, worked diligently to complete the yearbook. With the help of some of the faculty members, we presented a successful pep session. To round out our four years of activities, we made numerous preparations for our final high school goal—Commencement.

We will never forget Norwich High School, our teachers, and the many rich memories we have acquired here. On behalf of the Senior class, I wish to thank all those who have helped make our high school course a success.

Class Will

We, the class of nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, being of sound mind and firm constitutions, wish to bequeath these following items to the poor, unfortunate creatures known as the Juniors:

Our first bequest to Mrs. Snover: the Medal of Honor for service "above and beyond the call of duty," plus the Purple Heart.

Bruce Snover wishes to leave his Charles Atlas Muscle-bound Boys to Joe Byrne. We don't mean to insinuate that Joe is weak, but he fought a chipmunk for twenty minutes that thought he was an albino walnut.

To Dave Ryan, Carol Byrne leaves ten free dancing lessons at the Arthur Murray Studio, so next year the girls' feet won't take such a beating in gym class.

We wish to leave to Joe DiStefano and Kent McGarity the newest Elvis Presley album. We also wish them luck in forming their new Elvis fan club.

Diane Stewart and Ann Jones wish to leave Mary Ann Dunne one dozen 150-watt light bulbs to keep the "Coomes Street Porch-lighters Association" running smoothly.

Dave Giltner would like to leave to Mr. Miers his recently written book, "Courteous Driving."

To Charlotte Lyster, Rosemary McGuire leaves a book on elocution and the proper enunciation for everyday speech.

To Fred Miers and Pat Quinn, we leave a bottle of suntan lotion to prevent burns from the terrific heat of the pool room lamps.

To Dave Hanson, Fran Caravaglio and Dick Wilson leave priority rights to all polkas in the Hi-Y room.

To Myrna Tillapaugh is left a nice new telescope to gaze at the stars up at King Settlement.

To Barney Hogan, Errol Jacobi wishes to leave his latest book on "How to be Thrifty."

To Miss Wells, we leave a book on the handling of maniacs and idiots.

Carol and Sis Byrne wish to leave to Miss Wells, as a token of their appreciation—Pat.

To Miss Adams we leave a 1000-watt light bulb because next year her classes won't be too bright.

To next year's A.F.S. exchange student, Susie Goodspeed leaves a bottle of seasick pills and map of Paris. (Just follow the dotted line to get to the "Follies.")

Russ Tice leaves to Bob Miller his loaded dice and marked cards to keep him in spending money.

To Windy Williams, we leave a bottle of peroxide to remove the red dye that mysteriously (?) got into her hair.

Sally Cleveland happily bequeaths to Sandy Smith and Dave Endries a secluded corner of 207 in which to conduct band (?) business.

John "Bunky" Spadaro leaves his back-breaking strut to the next drum major, and with it a word of advice—"Pick up those flat feet!"

We the class of '57 wish to leave a cigarette machine for 207 next year to make things easier for those who just can't break the habit.

Now in all seriousness we, the class of '57, wish the class of '58 and all the underclassmen the very best of luck in the future.

—D. W. GILTNER, Esq.

Heavenly Body Ascends Stairway to Stars

(address to undergraduates)

One glorious day four years ago a heavenly body sent forth a flying saucer which landed conveniently on the front lawn of NHS. One hundred and forty-five super-human beings emerged from this complex structure and entered the halls of NHS as the class of 1957. During their four years in NHS these people have constantly made improvements and contributed greatly to bettering the reputation of the school. But all good things must come to an end and the time is at hand for these models of perfection to take their places as leaders of the world and to straighten out the confused state into which it has fallen. Before leaving, however, in keeping with our ever constant policy of helping those less gifted than ourselves, we feel bound to point out to you unfortunate juniors only, certain major faults which are most outstanding among members of your class.

When the juniors invaded 206 at the beginning of the year, acting like a bunch of Martians newly introduced to earth, Mr. Giltner had to institute emergency action and set up a Junior Detention Hall, for juniors only, and including all, in 206 at 3:30.

Our faithful advisor, Miss Wells, upon foreseeing what would befall her if she remained junior advisor, decided to ascend with us the "Stairway to the Stars" of our senior year.

When Sue Brown dons her purple and white spacesuit (her cheerleader's uniform, for those juniors whom I might mislead) and goes for her final jump in the "Long Norwich" the expression on her face makes her look like she's reaching for the stars and gets hit by a meteor.

Joe Di Stefano and Kent McGarity, both of whom turned blue, then cool, upon hitting some unearthly chord, received invitations to join the Morbid Martians Music-Makers, an organization, which I hear, is just out of this world.

Senior Dave "Hercules" Owens has reserved passage on the first flight to the moon in order not to get hit by that shooting star, Charlotte Lyesoap (oops—Lyster).

The junior astronomy team, Mary Ann "My daddy's a banker" Dunne and Bud "How's the weather down there" Fuller can be found any night in Dunne's backyard brushing stardust off each other's shoulders with Fuller brushes.

We certainly hope that when you juniors choose your class colors next year one of them will be red. You seem to have such a preference for red ink when it comes to your report cards.

And have you heard that a completely new marking system is being devised for your benefit next year?

A, 35 to 50 B, 29 to 35 C, 13 to 29 D, 3 to 13 F, - 15 to - 3

This should enable you to have more than four people on the high honor roll for one marking period. We'll bet some of you still won't make it (not mentioning any names, George Yacano).

Dave "Ride 'em cowboy" Ryan will make his first trip to Mars via his own Pegasus (flying horse for you juniors unacquainted with mythology) equipped with an Oldsmobile engine and torsion air drive.

Stephen Foster would turn over in his grave if he could see his beautiful "Jeannie With the Light Brown Hair" transformed into "Sally With the Fake Blonde Hair." This refers, of course, to that two-toned junior job, Sally North. This could be as aptly applied to Wendy "Have you heard the latest" Williams, Nicki "O Sole Mio" Alessi, and Sandy "Come into the bathroom" Ridgeway.

And of course you all know by now that our school paper, the "Rambler," has been replaced by the "Griffis Gazette." It is rumored that the former is claiming bankruptcy because Pat spreads the news so quickly that it is old stuff when the "Rambler" comes out.

To the remaining juniors whom space will not permit us to name we urge you to keep aiming for the stars although there isn't much chance that you will ever rise above your mediocre standards.

In all seriousness we wish each and every member of the class of 1958 all the luck in the universe.

Earthly Retort—

(The Undergraduates' Reply)

If one year and ten months ago poor Miss Wells had realized that the stupendous task of restraining the malicious and nefarious actions of that group of simple-minded students, now classed as seniors, was hers for two consecutive years, she undoubtedly would have retired to psychoanalyzing maladjusted Hyaenidae (hyenas—i.e. seniors) whose antics we hereby expose.

"Shine" Raynor has discovered via the trial and error method that it is impossible to propel an automobile through a stone wall, regardless of speed!

"Snowball" Snover's passing detention class with a high percentage of attendance cannot be attributed to his conscientious sense of moral duty, but rather to his mother's brute strength.

Will Dave Bartlett (sometimes known as Steve's little brother) succeed in his ambition to demolish, piece by piece, his family's car, thus forcing them to purchase a new one? Perhaps Mr. Giltner would refer Dave to his son who seems to have expert knowledge in this field.

From the deep, dark depths of senior study hall comes the rasping croak of "Hogbert." From what other group of individuals than this class of '57 could come such an inimitable imitation of a frog?

The seniors boast of their feminine superiority, but where would Jake be if seat 1, row 4 in 206 was vacant? Some individuals like Raynor, after realizing what a motley selection is available from 207, have elevated their social position by associating with the glorious undergrads.

But enough of these derogatory statements! Where doth the path into the future lead the intelligentsia (???) of the class of '57?

In twenty years . . . the budding scientist of today, Fran Caravaglio, will receive the Nobel Prize in physics for his outstanding research on outdoor thermometers. (All he knows he owes to our beloved Mr. "It's too warm!" Shonosky.)

"Bunky" Spadaro, after nineteen years of diligent work, will be named Drum Major at Vassar.

Heading the best seller list will be Dave Giltner's "How to Get Stuck in a Cemetery with Your Date on a Cold Winter Night."

"Ready" Teddy will be butler at the Jones' residence.

And finally—that RADICAL Brenda Baker (Who let her out???) will hold the honored position of head keeper at the Lower Slobovian State Asylum.

In conclusion, let us elucidate the true feelings of the undergrads. In spite of the fact that everything stated in the above is true, we sincerely wish the class of '57 the best of luck in all their future endeavors!

Space Pilot's Farewell

(The President's Address)

Norwich High School may be compared to a lighthouse, its beams guiding those of us who have passed through her hallowed halls. Our faculty, class advisors, and our parents have been one strong beacon of light shining upon the stormy sea of youth and directing us safely to shore. The shore, in this case, is graduation from high school after four short years of hard work and faith.

An even more distant shore has yet to be reached as we launch our ships upon the sea of new ventures, taking us out of our comparatively small world into a new and different one. The guiding beacon light, which helps us to achieve the goals to which we aspire, must come from within ourselves.

We must assume the responsibilities of our adult lives, practice good sportsmanship in every phase of living, do our share in making the world a better place in which to live, and challenge the wrong and champion the right.

With the aid of the knowledge gained and the experience shared at Norwich High School, it is our utmost desire to achieve our individual aims and primary purpose, "peace on earth, good will to men."

Seventh graders always begin their year in junior high with no money in their treasury. However, under the leadership of their enthusiastic president, Patricia Stott, they competed with the eighth graders in selling purple and white pens. After this successful venture they had earned enough money to pay for their picture in the Archive and their Christmas parties. Then they relaxed, temporarily, to await their turn to serve on committees for the open houses which are held for seventh and eighth graders.

Eighth Grade

Under the leadership of their president, Weston Wickham, their advisor, Miss Byrne, the eighth graders started the year enthusiastically. They made a good profit on the sale of purple and white pens. This profit was used to defray expenses of the year.

Open Houses were held for enjoyment. Special features that were much enjoyed were the Halloween story telling by Mr. Tritto; the crowning of Harvest Queen, Dorothy Merithew, and King, Robert McNitt; and the interesting exhibition of foreign and popular dances by Mr. and Mrs. Jamba and their Oxford dance class.

Assistance given to others through the Red Cross, Care, and the March of Dimes was noteworthy. In March the eighth grades participated in local and state spelling contests.

Sophomore Class

Under the able leadership of president Don Carpenter, the Sophomore Class got into the full swing of high school life. We were well represented in sports, music, debate, and many other organizations. In addition to this, it was gratifying to see the number of sophomores who obtained a place on the honor roll. The class highlighted the beginning of the basketball season with an unusual but amusing pep session. Our magazine sale was very successful; we exceeded the $1000 mark. Under the watchful eyes of Mrs. Christman, the year proved to be very prosperous for the Sophomore Class.

Junior Class

In the past year the Junior class has entered into many activities, both as a unit and as individuals. Mrs. Snover, our frenzied advisor in the annual junior class magazine sale, helped us boost the total earnings to a new high.

As the first term drew to a close, we looked forward eagerly to the last step before the "big year." We started preparations for the Junior Prom. The Junior-Senior picnic ended our reign in 206, and, as we saw our friends take up their occupations in society, wild anticipation for the coming year filled our minds.

The Guiding Star

The Student Council under the capable leadership of President Wayne Adams has been very active this year. Starting off in the fall, the council sponsored two bonfires, and pep rallies. The first was for the Bingo Central game, and the other for the traditional homecoming game. Homecoming weekend was rained out according to late tradition, but all ceremonies were carried on. The new year rolled around, and the council successfully promoted the annual March of Dimes campaign, exceeding our goal by several hundred dollars. Steps were taken to endorse and employ a student-faculty-administration committee to aid in the solution of many school problems. The annual Work Day was held in the spring. Many students rolled up their sleeves and found work around Norwich, and contributed to the growth of the Student Loan Fund. The Activity Dinner brought to an end the major activities of the year for the council. Other officers included: Vice President Dick Wilson; Secretary Sally Cleveland; Treasurer Ted Kerley. Mr. Giltner served as our advisor.

Sky Rockets

"To promote the general welfare of the school and students, and to aid and assist when requested in school activities," clearly defines the purpose of the Booster-Uppers Club.

Alert and pleasant receptionists are now familiar to the halls of NHS due to the efficient proctoring system carried out by the Booster-Uppers.

The Sadie Hawkins Dance, produced according to the strictest "Dog Patch traditions," the 1956 Christmas Formal, "White Christmas," and the Spring Stomp—all sponsored by the Booster-Uppers—have helped to bolster the social life at Norwich High.

Storm Clouds

Participation in various tournaments highlighted the year's activities for the Bema Debate Club. Members journeyed to Oswego State Teachers' College, Hamilton College, Jeffersonville, Utica College, Aquinas Institute, Jamestown, Harpur College, and Utica Free Academy to demonstrate their fine speaking ability. The Mid-State Tournament at Hamilton, the New York State National Forensic League Tourney at Syracuse University, and the New York State High School Forensic League Tournament at Albany also attracted the Norwich team. Besides this competition, appearances were made before service and religious groups throughout the area. Two Student Congresses were held at Saugerties and Vincentian Institute.

Pennies from Heaven

The purpose of this club is to serve the rest of the school in banking every Tuesday morning. The club meets once a month. It sponsors an annual dance in February and, at the end of the year, has a dinner.

The Bankers' Club of Norwich High School is the only one of its kind in the state that is carried on entirely by student bankers.

The whole club wishes to thank our two capable advisors, Miss Elizabeth Taylor and Miss Phyllis Colpitts, for the time they have given to the club's activities.

Under the supervision of Mr. James Couden, the combined clubs of Thespians, Dramatics, and Probationers work hard all through the school year. Sponsoring dances, presenting a lovely Christmas assembly, and casting a play for the year are but a few of this organization's purposes.

This year our play was a dramatic mystery, "Night Must Fall" by Emlyn Williams. Everyone will be working hard at staging, scenery, and make-up, trying to earn enough hours to become a Thespian. Good luck to all of you, new and old members, and may each and every one of you reach your final goal.

This year Pep Council has been advised by Coach Kurt Beyer; the officers were as follows: president, Roberta Land; vice president, Francis Caravaglio; and secretary-treasurer, Hope Hollis.

The main purpose of Pep Council is to try and boost school spirit with any new ideas which might keep the students' interest in school activities at its peak.

This year Pep Council has sponsored fan buses to many out-of-town football and basketball games and has sold purple and white beanies in school and at the games, as a small means of boosting spirit.

Pep sessions, which are put on by the various clubs and organizations in school, are scheduled by the Pep Council and also approved by it as well as by Mr. Giltner.

Heavenly Soil Guardians

The Future Farmers of America, better known as the F.F.A., have had a busy and prosperous year. This year's president, Donald Franklin, has led the group in many activities including summer attendance at the State Future Farmer Camp, the giving of the Green Hand Degree, a dinner party with Oxford F.F.A., and basketball. The club has raised money by selling apples and planting trees for reforestation. This club strives to develop the qualities of citizenship, cooperation, and leadership among its members.

The Junior Red Cross is dedicated to service for others, while its purpose is to promote friendship throughout the world.

The Council has brightened our Veterans' Hospitals with favors, party hats, nut cups, and posters for the different national holidays. They made covers for one hundred annual reports and nut cups for three Red Cross dinners; provided a Christmas tree, dinner, and toys for a needy family; helped with bloodmobiles; assisted the Hungarian Resettlement Committee; filled Red Cross gift boxes; and made an exchange album.

Money was raised to sponsor these projects by bake and candy sales and by a dance.

An assembly program was given to organize the annual J.R.C. campaign.

Interplanetary News

"Sardines Unlimited," "Chaos in Hungary," "Shall We Dance," are typical editorials from the 1956-57 issues of the Rambler. All these timely subjects have been threshed out by the student editors. Sam Satan has adequately blasted social problems in his "Advice from Down Under." The "Blue to Cool" column has filled in many missing links in our knowledge of music. The feats of NHS sportsmen have been well trumpeted in the "Purple Arena."

Along with the regular columns, school and local news and sports events have been covered by the Rambler reporters.

Starry-Eyed Workers

ARCHIVE STAFF

Deadline—January 15! Mr. Tritto announced this profound statement and moans could be heard coming from Room 119. The Archive Staff, working diligently under the advisorship of Mr. Tritto, has received much cooperation from the teachers, students, and Mr. Gould. We are grateful to all those who donated their time to run errands, type stories, make phone calls, and do other odd jobs. The result of our work is the 1957 Archive, a yearbook of which we can be proud.

The Hillcrest Conservation Committee, composed of students and faculty members, hopes to accomplish some very important things at the park this year. Also, if plans materialize, next year can be a banner year in the use of the park by the students of N.H.S.

This spring we shall try to greatly improve the road leading up to the park so that our camping committee can really "go to town." Replacement of trees and shrubs that have died will be started; and it is hoped that our fish pond will be repaired so that it can be put to full use. At our two new elementary schools we plan to help in the Arbor Day observance and landscaping of the areas.

Truly, we have for our use a perfect place to study and learn about conservation. May we, the students and faculty, use and learn more from the park each year.

Astral Serenaders

A Cappella Choir, consisting of thirty-five members, is made up of some of the school's finest choral and solo vocalists.

This year under the direction of Mr. Charles Benedict, they have participated in the annual Thanksgiving and Christmas Assemblies. Also among the various activities this year, Barbara Ryan, Nicki Alessi, Tom Tucker, and Dave Strader were chosen to attend All-State Choir at Cortland on November 16 and 17. Then in March some members were chosen to attend Chenango County Chorus at Norwich.

Musical Galaxy

Three years ago, Fred Whispell started a dance band known as The Music Makers. The Bluetones Orchestra took over the following two years, and this year NHS's third dance band is the J & K Quartet. In trying to achieve their goal of presenting good dance music and danceable jazz, they have played for high school proms, semi-formal and informal dances, weddings, parties, and dinners. A jazz workshop has been introduced by Joe and Kent. In the workshop they try to teach interested students appreciation of contemporary American music and to help them learn to play it. This group has played on numerous occasions.

Heavenly Symphonies

The officers of the N.H.S. Orchestra, directed by Frank L. Biletzky, are Jeanette Morley, president; Janice Hoyt, vice president; Joan Hewitt, secretary; Louanna Brown and Barbara Paul, librarians; Kay Pooler, historian.

Participating in the New York State School Music Sectional Orchestra held at Cortland were Richard Chorley, Robert Gardner, Janice Hoyt, Richard Kroeger, and Jeannette Morley. The String Quartet gave a short concert for the annual County Cancer Drive and for the dedication program of the new elementary schools held at the Stanford Gibson School. Several members took part in a Christmas program at the W.R.C. Home in Oxford.

The complete orchestra gave its annual concert, March 9, and the orchestra, ensembles, and soloists participated in the Spring Music Competition Festival. The County Orchestra Concert was held at Norwich and included many students from neighboring schools. The orchestra completed its year's activities by playing for the Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises.

Who will referee the game Friday night? That is quite an important question. The answer: the Officials' Club. They are always there! The girls can be seen at play days, intramurals, and the Student-Faculty game. Some of the girls are working on ratings in various sports with high hopes.

During the year the Modern Dancers held a workshop with Miss Woodford which enabled the girls to accomplish several new skills. These were perfected and incorporated into a graceful number which they presented in a combined assembly with the tumbling and apparatus clubs. The performance was also given for grade school and P.T.A. groups.

Tumbling Club

Under the leadership of Mrs. Tomaselli, the tumbling club had a busy year. After weeks of practice and training the tumblers staged a demonstration for the school and held a tumbling clinic at Sidney. An assembly was held for the P.T.A. at which the tumblers performed.

First row, left to right: C. Crandall, S. Horton, Secretary - Treasurer, H. Schwingle, President, P. Griffis, H. Urlwin. Second row: K. Ryan, Do Master-son, R. Land, C. Byrne, M. Depew, M. Performing those daring skills every year are the apparatus club members. Each year approximately ten new members are chosen on their ability to perform on a certain piece of apparatus.

Practice for these girls was every Thursday noon until 12:30. Advisors and official spotters were Miss Duerr and Mrs. Thomaselli.

This year the club held a clinic at Sidney to exchange and gain new ideas. Also at school they performed at an assembly March 4 for the whole student body.

Varsity Basketball

Check 'em up! The girls' varsity played a series of games with Oxford, Sherburne, and New Berlin. Proving to be a very skillful team, the varsity opposed the faculty in a game February 21. Skills and plays were learned Thursday nights.

This team was chosen by Mrs. Thomaselli and Miss Duerr, and as usual, competition was very keen.

Second row: G. Huggins, S.
Brown, H. Schwingle, M.

Varsity Volleyball

Under the capable leadership of Miss Duerr, the Girls' Varsity Volleyball team was most successful this year. Out-playing their opponents in all three games played, Norwich did not allow Edmeston, Sherburne, or New Berlin to get within twenty points of them. The key to victory is certainly fine evidence of team play, cooperation, and hard play.

Cheerleaders Club

Are you ready? This is a familiar cry often shouted by head cheerleader, Roberta Land. These peppy gals are seen on the football field and basketball court at home and away games. This year's Cheerleaders' club sponsored pep sessions, dances, and bake sales to raise money for their new megaphones. Working hard to develop co-ordination, pep, and spirit, these girls deserve much credit for a job well done.

BOYS' ATHLETIC COUNCIL

To become a member of the Boys' Athletic Council, one must have received two letters in one school year, or two letters in one sport, or be a captain of an athletic team. The Council provides an opportunity for boys to have a voice in the athletic program of their school. It assists in making the requirements for letters and also votes on those who are to receive letters. The Athletic Council tries to iron out any problems which come up in the athletic program. It also makes the training rules which all athletes must follow. Along with the other clubs, the B.A.C. tries to promote high spirit in all school activities. The Athletic Council runs the concession stand during all home basketball games. With the money that is realized, the council puts on a benefit show for some worthy cause.

The Club officers this year are: President, Ted Kerley; Vice President, Dave Hanson; Secretary, Dave Beltz; Treasurer, Wayne Adams; Historians, Fran Caravaglio and Alan Breed.

FOOTBALL PROGRAM COMMITTEE

Under the guidance of Coach Beyer the Football Program Committee began work early in the summer. After selling the ads, the members wrote the articles under the pictures and put the finishing touches on the final draft. Their task was completed when they sold over three hundred dollars worth of programs during the football season. The earnings on these programs went toward the publishing of this year's Archive and into the class treasury.

The 1956 edition of the Purple Tornado won three games and lost five. It was a heart-breaking year as the team was continuously plagued by injuries. In the Binghamton game, which Norwich lost 33-13, Captain Wayne Adams was lost for the season. Bud Fuller and Ed Maricle were also lost but they returned for the Oneonta game. The climax of the season came when the Purple whipped Mohawk 21-0 and then the following week routed defending league champs Oneonta, 7-0. There were twenty-two letters awarded at the football dinner. At this dinner the various awards were presented. The Most Valuable Player Award was presented to Fran Caravaglio and Dave Hanson. Dick Wilson was awarded the Most Valuable Lineman Award. Julius Annese won the Most Improved Player Award. Pat Quinn and Fred Miers were elected the co-captains for the 1957 season.

Sparklers

The 1956 Junior Varsity football team was the first J.V. team in three years to win any games. Under the patient tutelage of Mr. Smith and Mr. Shonosky, the juniors took the measure of Homer and Oxford. As has been the case in the other years, size was the major factor. The Purple juniors were constantly facing teams larger and more experienced than themselves. This was especially true in the line which was always outweighed. Joe Leo, a freshman halfback with a lot of promise, was elected honorary captain at the end of the season. The spirit displayed by this club brings much hope for future good years. With a little bit of growth and the maintenance of the same attitude on the part of the boys, Coach Beyer may have another undefeated year.

The 1956-57 basketball team, coached by Jim Smith and captained by Ted Kerley, finished the regular season with a 10-8 record and a third place finish in the league. In sectional play the tornado advanced to the Oneida Area Championship. They were knocked off by Little Falls in the play-off for the combined Utica-Oneida Area Championship.

Wayne Adams, unanimous choice for the Iroquois League All-Star team, led the team in scoring with over 375 points. Fran Caravagilo was picked on the second team and he was the second highest scorer with over 175 points. Ted Kerley received honorable mention on the All-Star team.

Two of the major highlights of the season were the 76-69 victory over Ilion, at Ilion, after having lost in a sudden death in the first game, and a 70-62 victory over Oneonta, at Oneonta, on their impossible court. The final record for the season was 13 wins and nine defeats.

This year's Junior Varsity, under the watchful eyes of Mr. Shonosky, posted an excellent record of 14-8. The only team who beat them in Iroquois League competition was Little Falls. This gives Norwichites a great hope for the future. Incidentally, Little Falls won the first one by nine points (51-42) and the second one, on their own court, by the scant margin of two points (61-59).

Pacing the juniors were Joe Mazza, Jim Collins and Charlie Crosby. Joe was leading scorer with 233 points to his credit. Running right behind him were Jim and Charlie with 220 and 214 points respectively. These three sharp-shooters will certainly make a dent in some other team's honor.

The J.V. had two close games during the season. In their seventh game they won a squeaker from Whitesboro in an overtime, 60-58. The other was the last game at Little Falls which the Falls won in a sudden death. All in all, it was a very successful year with much promise for the future.

The 1956-57 Wrestling team experienced a very successful year under the able coaching of Sam Elia and led by co-captains Don Manley and Joe Binelli. The Purple matmen, with only four returning lettermen and a group of J.V. veterans, finished the season with a record of 8-1-1 for dual meets. After trimming Oneonta to the tune of 35-3, the grapplers had a 29-match winning streak snapped by a long time Iroquois league rival, Ilion. They proceeded to win the next four, draw with Ilion and win the following four. A special event of the season was a non-league match with Rome in which the latter was defeated 26-14.

The grapplers again this year dominated the Iroquois league as they won the championship for the fifth straight year. In doing so, they crowned four champions—115 Don Franklin, 130 Dick Sheer, 136 Don Manley and 141 Joe Binelli. This was Don Manley's fourth consecutive championship.

In the Section 3 tournament, Norwich, the defending champion, placed second to Watertown. The Purple placed Don Franklin, Don Manley, and Joe Binelli in the finals. Manley and Binelli captured sectional titles and Don was voted outstanding wrestler of the tournament. This was his third sectional title. Don and Joe represented Section 3 in the intersectional clash between Section 3 and Section 10. Don won his first intersectional championship and in doing so completed his high school career with a tremendous overall record of 65-2.

The badminton team had a very successful season considering losses of key men. The team consisted of captain John Payne, Fran Ingraham, Dave Biviano, Angelo Spano, and Dave Marshall. The team played Oneonta, Little Falls, Herkimer, Ilion, and Mohawk, losing to the first two teams mentioned for a 3-2 record. John Payne was undefeated in league play and won the league singles crown at the league tournament for the second straight year.

This year's bowling team was coached by Mr. Baxter and captained by Alan Breed. Roger Comstock continually paced the team to a 5-2 record with a high three-game total of 589. The team won 50 points toward the All-Sports Trophy. The high total for the year, 2504, was bowled in the Iroquois League Tournament in which Norwich placed second.

Under the guidance of Coach Beyer, the Norwich High School Volleyball team turned in a 5-3 record. At the Iroquois League Tournament Norwich placed fourth, with Oneonta first, Ilion second, and Mohawk third. Norwich was handicapped with an inexperienced team.

The Varsity Rifle team, captained by Dave Beltz and coached by Stanford Gibson, had a record of eight wins and five losses. In losing a very close match with Vestal, Evan MacEwan was able to set a new school record of 193. In the Delhi match Dave Strader shot a perfect 50 from the sitting position.

Under the patient tutelage of coach Elia, Golf is becoming an accepted sport at NHS. This year's lettermen are Captain J. Kirby, Bernard Hogan, Patrick Byrne, and Charles Scully. Of these lettermen, three boys return next year as well as some promising freshmen. All in all, the future is fairly rosy. Interest is steadily rising so that it may become the popular sport it was in former years.

This past season Norwich completed its second season with cross country as a fall sport. The team was coached by Mr. Couden and captained by Dick Harrington. In a triangular meet among class "A" schools, Norwich placed third behind Vestal. In an invitational meet at Oneonta the Norwich team revenged its defeat at Oneonta's hands by winning over Oneonta and five other schools.

In the New York Section 3 meet at Baldwinsville, the team repeated last year's performance by placing third and qualifying two men for the state competition. On November 10, the New York State Intersectional run was held and Captain Dick Harrington, who hadn't been beaten all year, continued his streak by winning that event.

The NHS tennis team won four matches and lost five during the 1956 season. Tom Tucker, Vladimir Spudejko, Dave Bartlett, and Fred Miers were the main players on the team and the letter winners. Both Oneonta and Binghamton Central had very strong teams. Norwich won second place in the Iroquois League play. Tom Tucker was runner-up in Section 3 play and played in the intersectionals at Garden City, L. I. Dave Bartlett and Jack Payne represented NHS in Section 3 doubles play. Besides the letter winners the other members of the squad were Dave Biviano, Jack Payne, Jack Broderick, Roger Comstock, George Yacano.

Led by Captain Bill Ackerman, the Purple and White cindermen finished third in the League behind Ilion and Oneonta. Oneonta found it hard to win second place, for they just beat Norwich by 5/6 of a point. The score was 26 1/2 to 25 2/3.

This year's team was led by Captain Bill Ackerman, a great hurdler and broad jumper. In the weights we could count on points from Marv Morgenstein, Butch Magistro and Ed Strader. Ed is one of the few boys, in Norwich High track history, to put the shot over 45 feet.

The pole vault netted us many points, with the three best pole vaulters in the League. They were Ted Hanson, Tom Haynes and Joe Binelli.

In the four big meets of the season, the team placed seventh in the section three relays, tied for second with Oneonta in the New Hartford Invitationals, first in the Norwich Invitational and seventh in the Section three Class "B" meet.

Norwich won 2, lost 3, tied 1.

Ed Strader won the Gould trophy by computing the most points during the season, a total of 74 points.

Baseball

Last year's Baseball team coached by Ray Borowicz and co-captained by Fred Swertfager and Charlie Townsend finished in a three-way tie for first place with an 8-2 league record and an overall record of 10-4. Charlie and Fred continued their no-hit wizardry, and were both awarded The Stott Award. This is the first time two players have shared this honor. Two Norwich boys were chosen for the All-Star Team; they were Ted Kerley at second base and Pat Quinn in right field. This year's team, which will be coached by George Policano and captained by Larry Raynor, seems to be very strong.
